

Summer 2023 - London parks

This table provides a directory of various accessible parks in Ealing, London accessible to autistic children, teenagers and young people. This resource can be helpful for parents, educators, or anyone seeking to plan outdoor activities or visits.

Park	Link	Notable Features
Parks in Ealing Borough	Ealing Borough Parks	Variety of parks and green spaces
Parks in Hounslow	Hounslow Leisure and Parks	Diverse leisure options and parks
Parks in Brent	Brent Parks and Open Spaces	Wide range of parks and open spaces
Parks in Harrow	Harrow Commons and Open Spaces	Provides commons, greens and open spaces
Parks in Hillingdon	Hillingdon Parks and Leisure	Numerous parks and leisure events
Bushey Park (Companion Cycling)	Companion Cycling in Bushey Park	Offers companion cycling
Osterley Park and House	Outdoor Activities at Osterley Park	Provides cycling, canoeing and other outdoor activities
National Trust Family Friendly Parks	National Trust Family Friendly	Features family-friendly parks and activities
Hounslow Urban Farm	Hounslow Urban Farm	Urban farm with a variety of animals
Hanwell Zoo (Bunny Park)	Hanwell Zoo	Zoo with various animal species, popularly known as Bunny Park

Please note that the suitability of these activities and resources may vary according to individual needs and circumstances. Families are advised to assess the appropriateness of each activity for their child's needs and preferences. We do not assume any liability or responsibility for any difficulties, accidents, or damages that may occur as a result of engagement in these activities or use of these resources. Please also ensure to check each activity's website for key information, safety measures and guidelines beforehand for a safe and enjoyable experience.